Dear Charles

This letter certainly has been a long time in the coming! I want to thank you again for making the effort and taking the time to come to Hardy and give a public presentation as well as a staff workshop. It was a very informative and useful venture which was well received by those in attendance. I would be delighted if you would consider a "return engagement" next summer.

The day after you left, I was driving to Port McNeill and realized I'd not given you the right directions to find the Keogh River. Backtracking from the Port Alice turnoff, it's the second logging road on your right (Rupert 400) not the first (Rupert Main). If you took the R.Main, it soon runs into R.400. If you turned left at that point you would reach the turnoff for the river before long.

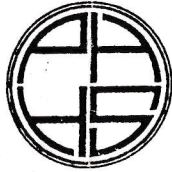

I sure am sorry that I botched up on my directions, and probably your fishing plans. Sure hope you found it.

Thanks again, Charles.

Curator

P.S. I am enclosing a copy of the ad of thanks we put in a recent issue of the North Island Gazette.

P.P.S. MY ~~TYPE~~WRITER HAS BECOME VERY TEMPERAMENTAL OF LATE! - I CAN'T CONTROL THE SPACING, THAT'S WHY THE LINES CRAW TOGETHER AT POINTS.

The Port Hardy Museum
